Welfare

Providing support and reassurance is important to us. If you'd like to talk about anything at all, regardless of whether it's related to faith or not, please don't hesitate to get in touch:

- The Muslim Chaplain, Shaykh Ibrahim, is a trained scholar at the Oxford Centre for Islamic Studies (OCIS) and has a crucial role in providing support to the students here. He has open hours in his office from 11 am to 1pm on Monday, and 5pm to 7pm on Tuesday (Marston Road Mosque, ask for Ibrahim Amin). He is contactable via email at ibrahim.amin@oxcis.ac.uk.
- Alternatively, Dr. Asma is available for sisters at asma.mustafa@oxcis.ac.uk if you have any queries you would like to direct to a female.
- Our Welfare Officers, Faiz and Supti, are both available anytime for a chat about anything, and everything will be kept completely confidential. Get in touch with them if you want to get anything off your chest, have a chat, or just get a hug.
- The Muslim Community Helpline is an anonymous helpline. They have trained counsellors who provide confidential, non-judgmental listening and emotional support. They are open Monday to Friday, 10am - 1pm, and can be called on 0208-904-8193 or 0208-908-6715.

MyMosque

You can access up-to-date prayer and congregational times via MyMosque, a free app for Android & iOS. Search for Oxford and select 'Oxford University ISoc'. www.mymosque.org.uk

Prayer Room Access

If you want to use the Prayer Room but do not know the entry code, please ask a committee member or email us.

Staying up-to-date
